Born at Stanford.
Taught at Stanford.
Shared with the world.

A framework.
A mindset.
A set of tools.

Tried.
Tested.
Proven.
For over 2 decades.

DYL is a framework where the innovation principles of Design Thinking are applied to the problems of life and work. DYL is not a 'solution' to change your life but instead, an invitation to change the way you move forward.

The process and courses have been developed by Stanford professors Bill Burnett and Dave Evans after extensive research at the Life Design Lab (d.life) at Stanford University.

Wherever you are in your story, let's build from there.

You want to turn the page.
Let's design the next chapter.

You've built success.
Now let's design for significance.

You've lived by the script.
Now let's write your own story.

You've mastered your craft.
Now let's explore your calling.

The outcomes from the transformative 2-day programme

Gain clarity on what truly matters — and design your next chapter with purpose and intention.

Get unstuck and learn the designer's superpower of "reframing".

Learn to explore multiple pathways, and learn to prototype your way forward.

Develop a designer's mindset - curious, creative, and be able to generate solutions.

Leave with a practical roadmap for a life and career that feels aligned, energising, and meaningful

Leave with a practical, evidence-based toolkit to keep designing — and redesigning — a life you love.

The programme will use official Courseware designed by DYL Consulting USA
